New York Jury Defies Biased Senile Judge

NEW YORK, March 19—"The cops are liars; they have violated every right that the Constitution of the United States provides its citizens, and I intend to prove my statement point by point.". Thus stated the brilliant young Negro attorney, Edward W. Jacko, Jr., defending the five Muslims on trial on the alleged trumped up charges of obstructing police officers.

Jacko's statement began one of the most brilliant summaries to jury heard during the 20th century. Using the Constitution of the United States and the Bill of Rights as his text, Jacko told the Jury that, according to Article XIV, Section 1, of the Constitution, all persons naturalized in the United States and subject to the jurisdiction thereof are citizens of the United States and the State wherein they reside. "No State," he said, "according to this article shall make and enforce laws which shall abridge the privileges or immunities of its citizens. Therefore, if this is to be accepted as a truth," he said, "what justification can the New York Police Department offer for kicking in the door of any of its citizens and endangering the lives of a man's family?

"The Constitution," he averred, "provides the rights of all citizens of the United States to be secure in their person, houses, papers, and against unreasonable search and seizure.

"The cops are liars, they violated this article of the Constitution, and they have lied in an effort to secure justification for their previous lies. The cop," he said, meaning detective Kienan, "is a psychopathic killer. Any man," Jacko cautioned the jury, "who would crash in the door of a private citizen, and shoot his gun point blank, with bullets falling all over the place, with small children all over the place, must be psychopathic."

Throughout the entire trial, which lasted more than three weeks and four days, Judge Farrow objected to every question Jacko put to the detectives. The Judge took over from the District Attorney and questioned or objected and involved himself in open battle with Jacko. His bias was noted by spectators throughout the entire trial during cross examination by Jacko of the police officers. Before the officers could answer, the Judge would object while the prosecuting attorney sat by. The jury, however, was not impressed with the zealous attempt to thwart justice and returned a verdict of not guilty. This verdict of not guilty was read, despite Judge Farrow's charge to the jury, in which he said, "If these defendants are found not guilty, there will be a large damage suit against the city of New York."

Mrs. Betty Little, Mrs. Audrey Rice and Mrs. Minnie Simmons were found not guilty.

Mr. and Mrs. John Mollet were freed on five counts. The counts on which they must again face trial hinge on the issue "Does a man have the right to protect his home and family?" The jury was deadlocked on this issue and asked the Judge to clarify it. Judge Farrow refused; thus Mollet and his wife, in whose home the detectives fired the shots, must face trial again.

Testifying before the jury, "there was a crash of glass at the back door and he (Detective Kiernan) stuck his gun in the door and fired point blank. I felt the bullet pass my leg. I turned and ran back to get my (four) children out of the way.

"Detective Bonura came in and took ~~me out~~ in the driveway. They had lined John (her husband) up against the wall in the driveway. His face was bleeding, his eyes swollen and his clothes ripped off.

"Detective Kiernan had a gun on him and he said:

"You yellow-bellied bastard. I should shoot you right now."

Thus went the testimony of Mrs. Yvonne Mollet, 27, one of the four Negroes on trial for alleged assault against two white detectives, Joseph Kiernan and Michael Bonura, who tried to enter their home last May 14, 1958 without a search warrant, while seeking a Mrs. Margaret Dorsey, who later turned out to be living in the Bronx.

John Mollet, 27, testified that when he heard someone fumbling at his door he stepped outside and questioned the right to search his house without a warrant:

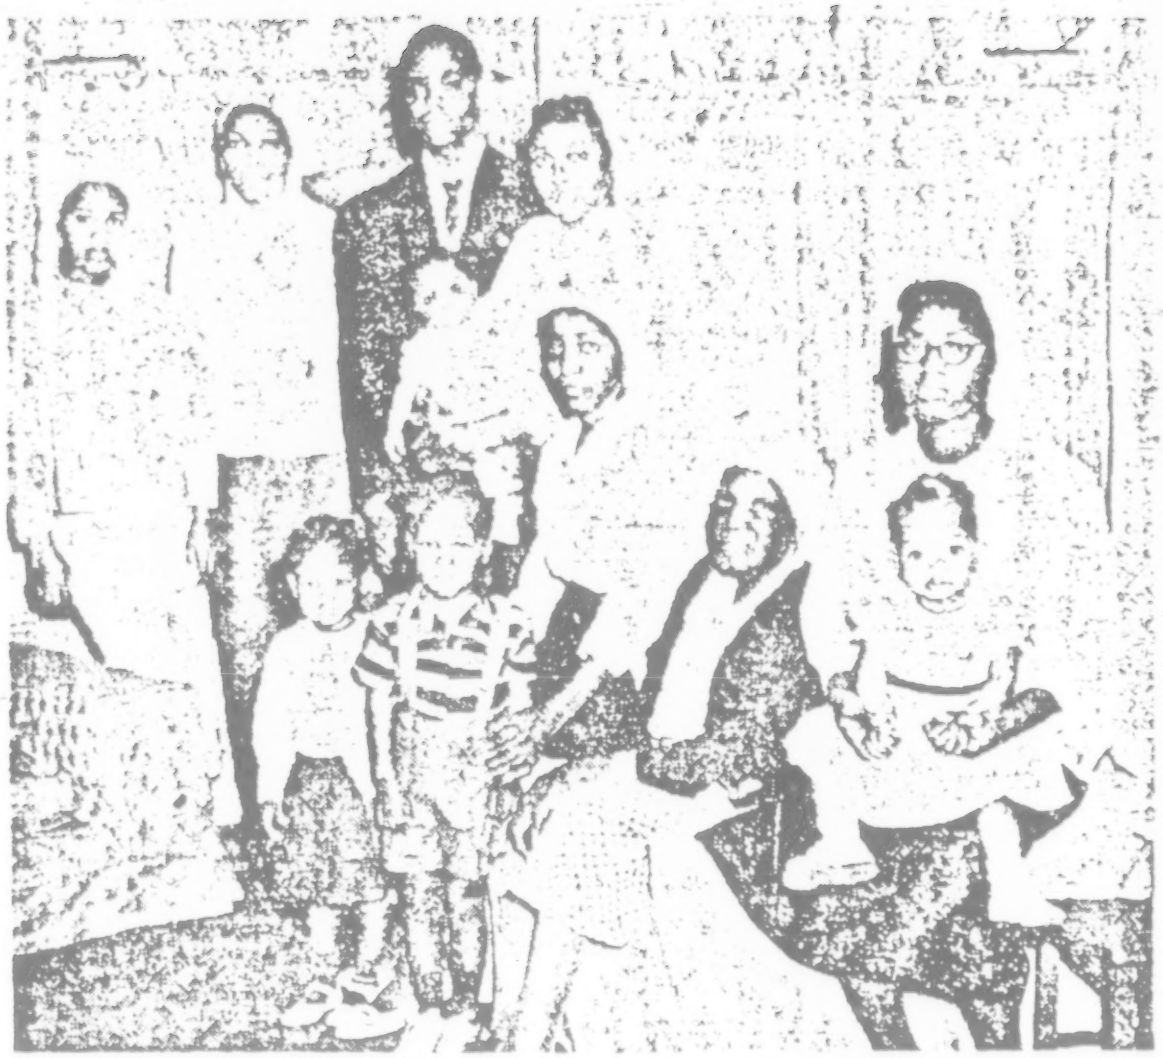
"They started beating and kicking me. They knocked me down and kicked me in the groin and side. They hit me in the mouth and jaw and tore my clothes off."

Mollet said that when he stumbled back into the side door of his house and locked the door, Kiernan shot twice through the glass panels and then broke the door open, dragging him out.

Defense attorney Edward W. Jacko, Jr., 271 W. 125th street, introduced both the shattered door and a bullet into evidence along with the torn bloody clothing worn that night by Mollet.

The verdict exonerates the Muslems and opens way for a suit.

MUSLIM SOLIDARITY WELL REWARDED—NOT GUILTY Verdict—for the third straight week Queens County Courthouse in Long Island City, New York has glimpsed phenomenal NEGRO UNITY, as zealous young followers of Messenger Elijah Muhammad have overflowed the courtroom and packed the courthouse corridors in teeming numbers to see that five fellow members, being tried for allegedly assaulting two white detectives, get a fair trial. Despite the tension, veteran courthouse attendents pronounced the Muslims as the most clean-cut, best disciplined, and well mannered group ever witnessed in the court's history. (photo by Bernard)



TARGET OF POLICE BULLETS—John Mollet, surrounded by Negro women and children, who were in the line of fire when police shot wildly into his house. Mollet and the women were on trial in New York, charged with assaulting the white officers who shot up their home. THIS DIDN'T HAPPEN IN MISSISSIPPI—it happened in New York City.

MUSLIM TRIAL CAUSES TENSION IN NEW YORK

EAST ELMHURST, Long Island, N. Y., March 4 — The two white detectives who on May 15, 1958, committed "the unpardonable sin in the Moslem World by kicking down the door of the apartment of Malcolm X, beloved leader of New York Moslems, landed in the hospital—one with a groin injury and the other with a possible brain concussion. These two white men will undoubtedly ask their God why he failed to explain to them that Moslems are intelligent and fearless, and work as a unit. Moslems are as unlike the American Negro as day is night. New York police are learning the hard way — you don't kick in a Moslem door, or insult Moslem women and get away with it. The white man is learning you either treat a Moslem with respect or you don't treat him at all.

These two detectives have had a long time to think it over. The case finally came to trial today in Judge Farrell's Court in Queen County. Moslems from all over the United States who had recently attended the Founder's Day convention in Chicago were in the courtroom watching the trial with interest.

Attorney Edward W. Jacko Jr. miraculously grilled Officer Kiernan on the stand for two days. His testimony was weak and fictional. He answered with "I don't recall, I don't remember, my memory fails me."

York Police have the restless trying the case himself instead of listening to evidence. The courtroom is jammed to capacity with overflowing crowds of Moslems and non-Moslems interested in the "kangaroo" court tactics of biased American judges.

The stupid tactics of New York Police has the restless Moslem world disturbed, and landed the detectives in the hospital. It began on the first floor of a building where Malcolm X occupies the second floor, or upstairs apartment. The two white detectives came to the downstairs apartment, which is also occupied by Moslems, looking for a "Margaret Dorsey," and were told she was unknown at that address. The officers then asked Yvonne X. Mollet, twenty seven, if they could come in and look around, and were told by her they could not do so without a warrant. The two white men then tried to force their way into the apartment, but the moral code of the Moslems cautions their women against letting men enter their homes when their husbands are not present. At this point Yvonne X. Mollet was joined at the door by her sister, Audrey X. Rice, seventeen and a younger sister thirteen years old. The three sisters pushed the officers' feet back and slammed the door in their faces. The indignant, embarrassed officers left, threatening to return with help.

By the time the detectives returned, Yvonne's husband, John X. Mollet, twenty six, owner of the house had arrived from Manhattan. He stepped outside the door and asked the officers what they wanted, to identify themselves, and show him a warrant if they had one.

One of the white detectives, Joseph Kiernan, enraged by the delay brushed Mollet aside and tried to force his way into the Moslem residence . . . AND ALL HELL BROKE LOOSE!

When the melee was over two shots had been fired by the invading white cops into a house of six Moslem children and six Moslem women, and two of the Moslem women were pregnant. Doors were kicked down, windows shattered, a barrage of soda bottles had been thrown from somewhere in the house . . . and the two detectives were in the hospital, one with a possible brain concussion and the other with a groin injury. It took an army of New York police to move into the mixed neighborhood and put down the disturbance. Yvonne Mollet, four Moslem women and the 13 year old girl were loaded into the police van like animals and taken to Astoria's 114th Precinct . . . but this was not the end!

The police at the Precinct looked outside and saw the Moslems coming from everywhere. The fearless Moslems quickly and silently formed orderly but MENACING picket lines around the Precinct. Calls went out immediately to the other Precincts for help and several squads with emergency units were made to stand by. The police could not understand how the Moslems who had almost beaten them to the Precinct had gotten together so quickly!

The Moslems' lawyer, Attorney Edward W. Jacko, Jr. arrived and warned top level police officials that one of the Moslem women, whom the police had unwittingly arrested was the wife of Malcolm X., leader of the New York Moslems, who was at this moment dashing back to New York by plane from Boston. He also told them one of the other Moslem women was the wife of John 2X, secretary of the New York Temple of Islam. The officers had foolishly broken into the second floor apartment, which is the residence of two of the highest officials of the Moslem movement in America, and the officers had also broken into their private office. He warned them that if a hasty release was not affected, it could create a "nasty situation" which could develop into a powder-keg situation of "international dimensions." The case is expected to continue for two weeks.

Moslems Accused of Annoyances

further prosecution would not serve the best interest of the state or of the citizens of the community."

In his statement, Rev. Mr. King said he was " . . . fully aware of my legal rights as a citizen in this matter . . . However I carry no torch for vindictive retaliation, but I do carry a torch for truth and for fair play."

He said he asks nothing more of the barber because Mr. Emery has already stated publicly that his barbershop is open to anyone for a haircut or a shoe shine.

SPRINGFIELD, Mass.—Police vowed to render any assistance within limitations of the law to Negro churchgoers if it is true that members of Elijah Muhammad's Moslem sect continue to annoy them.

Deputy Chief Francis M. Gallagher detailed men, headed by Capt. James J. Collins, to stay on hand at three churches during services the past several Sundays to check conditions.

Captain Collins reported seeing members of the Islamic cult passing out circulars and selling newspapers, but in a quiet and orderly manner. Officials pointed out that religious sects and cults are permitted to distribute pamphlets in Springfield as long as they create no disturbance nor force their attentions on those who choose to ignore them.

Police action came after conferences with Revs. Charles E. Cobb, St. John Congregational Church; Kelly A. Collins, Bethel AME, and Paul A. Fullove of Third Baptist.

Some pastors have ordered their church members to stop reading Negro newspapers, especially The Courier, which carries a weekly column by Moslem leader Elijah Muhammad. They have also threatened their members with expulsion if they attend Islamic lectures, according to Malcolm X, New York Moslem leader.

Asked why the Moslems so actively sell papers on the streets and in front of churches, a Moslem spokesman said:

"We desire only to teach our people the truth about their own history so they will have more pride as a race and carry themselves as people with more dignity. The best and most natural way to reach them is through the Negro press, and the Negro preachers should be happy to see these young brothers pushing the Negro press instead of condemning it."

it was the day before, and the Brother replied that they had over 500. The Brother then asked MUHAMMAD about Boston, and MUHAMMAD replied that he had received his letter. MUHAMMAD stated that she probably goes a little fast, but she has a lot of good ideas. The brother advised that things were picking up in Brooklyn and MUHAMMAD stated that that was an old seat of the Muslims, and that one of his first speeches was made there in the 1930s.

On January 26, 1959, [redacted] in New York was in contact with ELIJAH MUHAMMAD. [redacted] stated that he had received a letter from MUHAMMAD that had been opened and resealed with celophane tape, and wondered if someone had tampered with it. MUHAMMAD stated that he does not know if it was or not.

On January 30, 1959, an unknown sister was in contact with MALCOLM X in New York at TWining 8-3003, and stated that MUHAMMAD had gotten the Herald News and that he wanted them to stop picketing. MALCOLM stated that he did not know anything about it, that he had been out of town, and that nobody from New York had anything to do with it. MALCOLM stated that as soon as he heard about it, he went over and told the Temple in New Jersey that no Muslim should have anything to do with the picketing. ELIJAH MUHAMMAD then advised MALCOLM that he could expect [redacted] on Sunday or Monday, and that [redacted] would be there on business. MALCOLM advised that about the thing in New Jersey it was done by the same element that had caused the other trouble. MUHAMMAD advised that MALCOLM was to drop [redacted] a note and say that it was not anything from the Muslims, and that they regret that anyone was foolish enough to do those things. MUHAMMAD stated that he had gotten a telegram from [redacted] and he wanted to go home. If the Temple had enough in the treasury, they should send for [redacted] right away. MALCOLM stated that he would send for him through [redacted] out there.

On February 2, 1959, a [redacted] was in contact with ELIJAH MUHAMMAD and advised that he had just arrived in Chicago.

b7C

On February 2, 1959, [redacted] advised MUHAMMAD that he was at the airport and was on the way to MUHAMMAD's residence.

b7C

On this date, an unknown brother was in contact with ELIJAH MUHAMMAD and inquired if there was going to be a Ministers' class. MUHAMMAD stated no, that it was just for the Ministers from the East Coast so that they would know what to do on the 26th.

On February 4, 1959, M. SHABAZZ made a reservation on American Airlines on that date for himself, his wife, and four-month old baby for New York.

On February 5, 1959, [redacted] from St. Louis was in contact with CLARA MUHAMMAD, wife of ELIJAH MUHAMMAD. [redacted] advised that three of them had just arrived in Chicago.

On January 13, 1959, a [redacted] from Jersey City, New Jersey was in contact with ELIJAH MUHAMMAD. She advised MUHAMMAD that she had written him a 14-page letter last March, but had not received a reply. It was a personal letter, setting forth a number of problems she has. She stated that she had entered the Temple in New Jersey on August 18, 1956, and was forced to leave because of her actions. She stated that she had received one to five years before she left. She advised MUHAMMAD that she would like to get back into Islam. MUHAMMAD stated that he remembered her, but does not recall the letter and asked that she write to him again as the Minister had been changed in New Jersey.

b7C

On January 14, 1959, [redacted] was in contact with Eastern Airlines and made reservations from Chicago to Atlanta.

b7C

On January 14, 1959, [redacted] advised ELIJAH MUHAMMAD that [redacted] of Cincinnati was in Chicago. [redacted] advised that [redacted] was here to see the Secretary about some records and also to see MUHAMMAD.

b7C

On January 15, 1959, [redacted] was in contact with ELIJAH MUHAMMAD and asked if it was alright to let [redacted] from Detroit attend the class that night.

b7C

On January 17, 1959, Minister MALCOLM advised ELIJAH MUHAMMAD that he had arrived "up there" (probably Milwaukee) alright and that everything seemed to be alright. MUHAMMAD advised MALCOLM that he thought it would be better if MALCOLM came to Chicago and spent the night in Chicago.

On January 17, 1959, [redacted] chartered a bus to Milwaukee for the following day for about 40 people. The bus was to leave Chicago at 9:30 A.M. and to return at 8:00 P.M. On this date, [redacted] was advised by ELIJAH MUHAMMAD that either [redacted] would pick up the "girls" and take them to Milwaukee the following day. He advised that there would also be a bus at the Temple the following morning to take anyone else who would like to go. MUHAMMAD stated that he was going to call on the girls the following day to give testimony on how being in the Nation had effected them.

b7C

On January 19, 1959, MALCOLM SHABAZZ was in contact with American Airlines and made a reservation on Flight 216 for that date for New York City.

On January 19, 1959, [redacted] was advised by [redacted] CLARA MUHAMMAD, that [redacted] from Detroit was at the MUHAMMAD home the day before and had brought a carful of people from Detroit with her.

b7C

On January 21, 1959, ELIJAH MUHAMMAD was in contact with a [redacted] in LosAngeles, California. MUHAMMAD wanted to know if [redacted] would have space in the paper for MUHAMMAD's article. [redacted] advised that the paper was ready for print, and that MUHAMMAD's article was in the paper. MUHAMMAD requested that about 1,000 copies of the paper be sent to Chicago. MUHAMMAD asked if [redacted] could take time off to visit Chicago for a talk and [redacted] stated that he could. MUHAMMAD was to let him know more later.

On January 22, 1959, [redacted] in LosAngeles, California, was in contact with ELIJAH MUHAMMAD. [redacted] stated that he had been waiting to hear from MUHAMMAD, and has heard quite a bit through the grape vine, but had been waiting to hear from MUHAMMAD personally. MUHAMMAD stated that he thought it best that a committee go out to LosAngeles from Chicago, and talk to him about this matter. MUHAMMAD advised that they would be coming out after the 26th of February. [redacted] stated that he had been held up because a young brother came out there and told him that MUHAMMAD had sent him out there to contract the business. MUHAMMAD said that he did not send him out to do that kind of contracting. [redacted] assumes that [redacted] was referring to the building. [redacted] stated that that was what he was referring to. MUHAMMAD stated that the brother could be of help in trying to help [redacted] to understand some of the things about Islam that he does not understand. [redacted] stated that he wished MUHAMMAD would write a letter and inform them, because the preaching he has been doing he has gotten directly from the Scripture and the Holy Koran.

Religion Must Not Be Separate--Muslim Says

NEW YORK — "If religion means a way of life, and life's necessities are food, clothing and shelter, then we should not separate religion from economics," thundred Moslem minister Malcolm X over Harlem Station WLIB Saturday morning.

"Christianity offers Negroes its economic program of milk and honey (food), white robes, golden slippers (clothing), and mansions (shelter) up in the sky after they (the . . whereas Mr. Elijah Muhammad teaches us that in Islam we can get all of life's necessities right here on earth in this life if we will awaken, unite, and put forth the necessary efforts," explained Mr. X.

Representing Moslem Spiritual Leader Elijah Muhammad, Malcolm X appeared on WLIB's "The Editor Speaks" to discuss the "rapid rise of Islam among American Negroes." Other panelists were Chuck Stone of the New York Age; George S. Schuyler of the Pittsburgh Courier. The program was moderated by WLIB news editor, George W. Goodman.

Mr. X also pointed out that Africa today is like a "simmering volcano" ready to explode any moment. The young generation is sweeping aside the "uncle tom, puppet leaders" of yesterday who allowed the white man to come posing as a friend and benefactor, under the guise of Christianity, stealing the land and the natural resources. Islam is engulfing the entire Dark Continent today, and the present unrest is only a minute example of the "turmoil that is yet to come," as this new young element demands "an immediate change."

Constantly clashing with George S. Schuyler throughout the program, who opposed Mr. X on most all issues, Mr. X insisted that the Negroes in America have never fought for freedom.

"The Negro has fought to make America free, but has never fought to make Negroes free. Proof is, the Negro has fought everyone of America's wars, yet the Negro himself is still begging Free America to recognize him as a free and equal citizen here," declared the fiery Moslem leader.

WLIB has been besieged by a flood of mail about the "lively radio discussion," many asking for a repeat performance by Mr. X.
